

J. Eric Schuster

Geologist

Eric works part-time in the GIS/Editing section, where he is responsible for digitizing legacy geologic maps.

Job Responsibilities

Converting older printed geologic maps to digital form using ArcGIS, for presentation and download on the Survey's website.

Professional Experience

- Part-time Semi-retired Geologist, Washington Geological Survey, Olympia, WA
- Assistant Division Manager, Washington Division of Geology and Earth Resources, Olympia, WA
- Geologist, Washington Division of Mines and Geology, Olympia, WA

Education

- M.S. Geology, University of Wyoming, Laramie, WY
- B.S. Geology, Washington State University, Pullman, WA

Personal Interests

Baking, pickling, canning, gardening, hiking, reading (especially history), scanning old photos, weaving, woodworking (including making violins).