SFLO Calendar of Events

21\textsuperscript{ST} Annual Loggers Workshop - Get updates on the tricks of the trade, and receive 8 Continuing Education Credits from Washington Contract Loggers Association

- March 25 – Colville (Stevens County)  Contact Steve McConnell at smcconnell@spokanecounty.org for additional information.

Forest Stewardship Coached Planning – WSU’s flagship course teaches landowners how to assess your trees, avoid insect and disease problems, and attract wildlife. State experts will help you develop your own Forest Stewardship Plan to keep your woods on track to provide enjoyment and income for years to come.

- Everett - Monday evenings starting March 30.
- Black Diamond - Thursday evenings starting April 16.
- Chehalis - Wednesday April 22\textsuperscript{nd} through May 20\textsuperscript{th}. For registration information contact Julie.sackett@dnr.wa.gov
- Preston - Tuesday evenings starting September 22.
- Langley - Thursday evenings starting October 1.

Forest Owners Field Days - Field days feature a whole suite of our most popular forest stewardship workshops. The state’s top forestry specialists will be offering hands-on field sessions throughout the day on a variety of topics that will help you to better understand, protect, enhance, and enjoy your forest.

- Eastern Washington (Cle Elum) - June 20, 2015
- Vashon Island - June 27, 2015
- Western Washington (Francis) - August 15, 2015
- North Puget Sound – August 29, 2015
- San Juan Islands – September 26, 2015

Western Governors’ Drought Forum

- March 25 - “Managing Forest Health for Water Resources” explains the latest science on forest management for water resource needs as well as best practices to add security to water portfolios.
- April 8 - “One Size Doesn’t Fit All: Why Variation in Hydrology and Legal Structures means that Drought Looks Different across the West” will highlight how solutions tailored to the needs of specific communities can be utilized across the region.