

NOTICE OF INTENT TO OBTAIN CUSTODY

VESSEL 1929 58' F/V Memento with USCG Doc: 228780

The Port of Seattle declared the vessel F/V Memento described as a 1929 58' fishing vessel with USCG Doc: 228780, an emergency because it meets the criteria for temporary possession described under RCW 79.100.040(3). The Port of Seattle took temporary possession of the vessel and had it removed from Fishermen's Terminal – 3919 18th Ave W Seattle, WA 98119 King County, in order to prevent it from sinking, breaking up, blocking navigation, or posing a threat to human health and safety or the environment.

The Port of Seattle intends to take formal and full custody of the vessel on January 4, 2024 (Custody Date). After taking custody, the Port of Seattle may use or dispose of it without further notice. The owner is responsible for all related costs.

In order to keep the vessel, the owner must take the following actions before the Custody Date:

- Pay The Port of Seattle back for costs incurred to date, and
- Move the vessel to an anchorage area, moorage facility, or storage location that authorizes the vessel.

If the owner wants to reclaim the vessel after The Port of Seattle has custody, or wants to challenge The Port of Seattle's decision to take custody, the owner must file a written appeal with the Pollution Control Hearings Board (PCHB) and serve a copy on The Port of Seattle. Addresses are in the boxes below:

The appeal must include the following information:

- A copy of this notice or a copy of the notification letter to the owner.
- Your name and address (mailing and legal, if different) and, if applicable, the name and address of your representative.
- A daytime phone number.
- A brief statement why you are appealing.
- A statement of what you want the Pollution Control Hearings Board to do.
- Your signature or that of your representative. This signature certifies that the content of the appeal is true.

See www.eho.wa.gov/Documents/Pamphlet\_PCHB.pdf or call the PCHB at the number above with appeal questions.

The owner may submit the appeal immediately, but the PCHB must receive it no later than February 5, 2024 (Appeal Date). The owner waives the right to a hearing if the PCHB does not receive an appeal on or before the Appeal Date. The owner is then liable for any costs incurred by the Port of Seattle in responding to the vessel.

These costs may include all administrative costs incurred by the POS, removal and disposal costs, and costs associated with environmental damages directly or indirectly caused by the vessel. If there is a law suit, the successful party may receive reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

The POS also may pursue any other remedies available under law. The POS is taking this action under the authority of Chapter 79.100 RCW. You can find a copy of this law online at <http://apps.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=79.100>.
