

NOTICE OF INTENT TO OBTAIN CUSTODY

Wooden Motor Boat WN 1212 NL ‘Pauline’ 34 Feet in Length

San Juan County declared the vessel described as a 1928 34-foot wooden motorboat named ‘Pauline’, Registration No. WN 1212 NL, an emergency because it meets the criteria for temporary possession described under RCW 79.100.040(3). San Juan County took temporary possession of the vessel on February 16, 2023 after it was left at the Roche Harbor marina on San Juan Island. It has been reported that a captain transporting the boat en route to Friday Harbor requested moorage at Roche Harbor on February 15, 2023 when the boat was taking on water. The marina took measures to pump water from the boat, which continued to take on water and was at risk of sinking with diesel fuel on board. This vessel poses a threat to public and environmental safety and property. While in its temporary possession, San Juan County will tow the vessel and haul it out at Jensen and Sons Boatyard, Friday Harbor, WA.

San Juan County may take formal and full custody of the vessel on March 18, 2023 (Custody Date). After taking custody, San Juan County may use, sell or dispose of it without further notice. The owner is responsible for all related costs. In order to keep the vessel, the owner must take the following actions before the Custody Date:

- Pay San Juan County back for costs incurred to date, and
- Move the vessel to a facility that authorizes the vessel for storage.

If the owner wants to reclaim the vessel after San Juan County has custody, or wants to challenge San Juan County’s decision to take custody, the owner must file a written appeal with the Pollution Control Hearings Board (PCHB) and serve a copy on San Juan County. Addresses are in the boxes below:

Pollution Control Hearings Board (send one original and one copy) Physical address: 1111 Israel Road, Tumwater, WA 98501 Mailing address: PO Box 40903 Olympia, WA 98504-0903 Phone: 360-664-9160	San Juan County Environmental Stewardship Department 915 Spring Street PO Box 729 Friday Harbor, WA 98250

The appeal must include the following information:

- A copy of this notice or a copy of the notification letter to the owner.
- Your name and address (mailing and legal, if different) and, if applicable, the name and address of your representative.
- A daytime phone number.
- A brief statement of why you are appealing.
- A statement of what you want the Pollution Control Hearings Board to do.
- Your signature or that of your representative. This signature certifies that the content of the appeal is true.

See <http://www.eluho.wa.gov/Board/PCHB> or call the PCHB at the number above with appeal questions.

The owner may submit the appeal immediately, but the PCHB must receive it no later than April 17, 2023 (Appeal Date). The owner waives the right to a hearing if the PCHB does not receive an appeal on or before the Appeal Date. The owner is then liable for any costs incurred by San Juan County in responding to the vessel. These costs may include all administrative costs incurred by San Juan County, removal and disposal costs, and costs associated with environmental damages directly or indirectly caused by the vessel. If there is a lawsuit, the successful party may receive reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.

San Juan County also may pursue any other remedies available under law. San Juan County is taking this action under the authority of Chapter 79.100 RCW. You can find a copy of this law online at <http://apps.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=79.100>, or by contacting San Juan County. For more information regarding this action, contact San Juan County’s Derelict Vessel Removal Program at (360) 370-0555 or dvprogram@sanjuanco.com.
