

Bryan Massey, L.G., L.H.G.

Reclamation Specialist

Bryan is a surface mine inspector for the Washington Geological Survey where he assesses surface mines for compliance with RCW 78.44 and their site-specific reclamation permit. He also provides technical assistance to counties, cities, and miners. Bryan has worked with the Survey for 5 years.

Job Responsibilities

Surface mine inspections, permit review, and technical assistance.

Professional Interests

Slope and highwall stability, mine reclamation technics and best management practices, hydrogeology, environmental permitting and planning, assisting small businesses with permitting.

Professional Experience

- Project Manager, Maury Island Marine Park Mine Reclamation Project, Washington Department of Natural Resources, Olympia, WA
- Dewatering Geologist, Barrick Gold, Elko, NV
- Mine Contaminate Hydrogeologist, MWH, Bellevue, WA

Education

- B.S. Geology, Central Washington University, Ellensburg, WA