The phone numbers and meeting ID also will be listed in your confirmation email.

Meeting Start Time

The conference begins at 8:30 a.m. but will be available starting at 8:00 a.m. We recommend you join at least a few minutes before 8:30 a.m. to become familiar with the format and ask for any help you may need from our technical support specialist. Please put your questions in the Zoom chat box. We will go over the basics of using Zoom at the start of the conference.

If you are unfamiliar with Zoom, it may help to view this tutorial video before the conference.

Video or Audio

When you join the conference via smart phone or computer, you will be given a choice to join with just audio or both audio and video. Joining with audio means others can hear but not see you. Joining with video and audio means others can see you (provided the camera on your computer is activated) and hear you. The choice is yours. You will have full access to the conference with either option.

Recording

Please note that the meeting will be recorded. By registering for this meeting, you agree to be recorded. Your image will be captured if you have video enabled and are speaking. Videos of the presentations and the poster sessions will be posted to DNR's YouTube channel after the conference.
